ABOUT MYSELF

Hello , I'm Daniel i was born on december 23 1997.

I started coding at the age of 13 and fell in love immediately.

I tried different program languages during the years. But i was always most passionate about web development.

I took computer science classes since the 7th grade Until school graduation.

Then i took the latest and most updated courses from Udemy , Youtube and other great platforms , That Helped me take my skills to the next level.
